

New to teaching Sixth Form

This programme is aimed at teachers who are new to teaching Sixth Form or teachers who would like to reflect on and refine their Sixth Form teaching. The sessions are delivered by skilled Sixth Form practitioners across the Trust. It is recommended that those interested attend all sessions but sessions can be booked individually, should you have a particular area of interest linked to the themes on offer.

This training is for new Teachers at KS5 and existing KS5 Teachers wanted to refine their practice

To book an individual session please visit bookwhen.com/ololcpd

Date	Theme
13th Nov 2023	How does A level teaching differ from teaching younger years? Online 9.30am - 11am <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Transition from GCSE to A level. • What are the core principles of effective Sixth Form teaching? • Key principles for Sixth Form Curriculum design.
24th Jan 2024	Knowledge and challenge at the centre of the curriculum. Online 9.30am - 11.30am <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Retrieval approaches that are effective for KS5. • Importance of interleaving. • Approaches to promote challenge at KS5 including flip learning, extra-curricular challenges, questioning and independent practice.
27th June 2024	Supporting students with extended written responses. Online 9.30am - 11.30am <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Importance of a transition curriculum. • Excellent examples of communicating success to students. • How to withdraw scaffolding and support. • Building writing stamina.